Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying special purpose statement of revenues and expenses (compared to budget) and fund balances – regulatory basis, of the International Pacific Halibut Commission (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of revenues and expenses (compared to budget) and fund balances – regulatory basis as of September 30, 2021, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the financial reporting practices prescribed or permitted by the governments of the United States of America and Canada. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the special purpose statement of revenues and expenses (compared to budget) and fund balances – regulatory basis referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the statement of revenues and expenses (compared to budget) and fund balances – regulatory basis of International Pacific Halibut Commission as of September 30, 2021, and for the year then ended, in accordance with the financial reporting practices prescribed or permitted by the governments of the United States of America and Canada as described in Note 1.

Basis of Accounting

Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Restriction of Use

Our report is intended solely for the information and use of the commissioners and management of International Pacific Halibut Commission and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of the organization – The International Pacific Halibut Commission (the Commission) is an International Organization (IO) created in 1923 by a convention between the United States of America and Canada to manage the Pacific halibut fishery. Each country appoints three Commissioners who in turn appoint an Executive Director to supervise the Secretariat staff.

The Commission conducts scientific studies on Pacific halibut and, after consultation with the industry, proposes annual regulations to the governments of Canada and the United States of America for the Pacific halibut fishery. Fishermen of both countries must comply with the adopted regulations under the supervision of the Federal enforcement agencies of their respective governments. All financial records are denominated in U.S. dollars.

The Commission has adopted a fiscal year ending September 30.

Basis of presentation – The Commission has adopted a basis of accounting agreed to by the governments of Canada and the United States of America. The basis of accounting differs in certain respects from generally accepted accounting principles and is known as "other comprehensive basis of accounting" OCBOA, which is a special purpose framework. The following are the most significant differences that do not include required disclosures under GAAP:

- 1. Historically, the Commission recorded revenues in the fiscal year when appropriated by the governments of Canada and the United States of America and expenditures were recorded in the fiscal year in which the funds are committed by the Commission. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2021, the Commission began accruing income in the fiscal year of the activity and expenditures are recorded in the fiscal year in which they are incurred. Fund balance prior period adjustments reflected as of September 30, 2021, are a result of fund balance corrections to prior year grant receivable in the amount of $450,492 and conversion to accrual basis for certain items in the amount of $1,032,086, including $996,688 of accrued leave and sick leave benefits not previously expensed. Carryover general, carryover program funds, and transfers between funds, are recognized as income.
- 2. Pension costs are charged to expense when funds necessary to fund the employer's normal pension costs are paid.
- 3. Post-retirement health care and life insurance costs are charged to expense when the related premiums are paid.
- 4. Rent expense related to operating leases is expensed when paid and is not recognized on a straightline basis over the life of the lease. Contributions of free rents are not recognized in the financial statements.

Equipment – Equipment is recorded at acquisition cost. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expenditures when incurred. The Commission generally capitalizes assets with a cost greater than $5,000. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of 5 years for equipment. The Commission does not currently have capitalized assets. There was no depreciation expense for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2021.

Income taxes – The Commission is exempt from U. S. Federal income taxes. The Commission files Form 990 annually.

Subsequent events – The Commission has performed an evaluation of subsequent events through December 17, 2021, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 2 – General and Program Funds

The Commission's operations are funded by the governments of Canada and the United States of America. The Commission receives advances from each government during its fiscal year unless otherwise recommended by the Commission.

The Commission maintains the following funds:

20 Research – Research and development to study biological, historical aspects of the Pacific halibut species and the efficiency and conservation practices of fishing and processing industry.

30 Statistics - Gathering analysis and compilation of harvest data for fishery management.

40 FISS – Fishery-Independent Setline Survey revenues arise from the sale of fish, which are caught during research studies, and from external contracts and grants. The FISS Fund is used for specific scientific programs to assess biological movement and abundance of the Pacific halibut species.

50 Reserve – Provides funds to respond to unforeseen contingencies that cannot be met by the General Fund.

The Commission also leases office space in Homer and Sitka, Alaska, on a month-to-month basis.

Litigation – The Commission is involved in litigation arising from the normal course of business. In the Commission's management opinion, this litigation is not expected to have a material effect on the Commission's financial statements.

COVID-19 – In March 2020, the World Health Organization declared the novel coronavirus outbreak a pandemic. As of the date these financial statements were available to be issued, the Commission's operations have not been materially affected. However, the duration and severity of the pandemic could have an adverse impact on the financial position and cash flows of the Commission. The Commission will continue to monitor these events closely, but given the uncertainty, cannot estimate the potential impact to the financial statements.

Note 5 – Concentration of Credit Risk

The Commission places its cash and cash equivalents with financial institutions. At times, such balances may be in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insured limits. The Commission believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on its cash accounts.
